The Senior Class of 1972 wishes to dedicate this yearbook to our fellow classmate, Sonna Knoll, who will always be fondly remembered.

SONNA KNOLL

January 7, 1954--December 13, 1970

Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass,
Of glory in the flowers,
We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind.

William Wordsworth

An Image Of ATHS

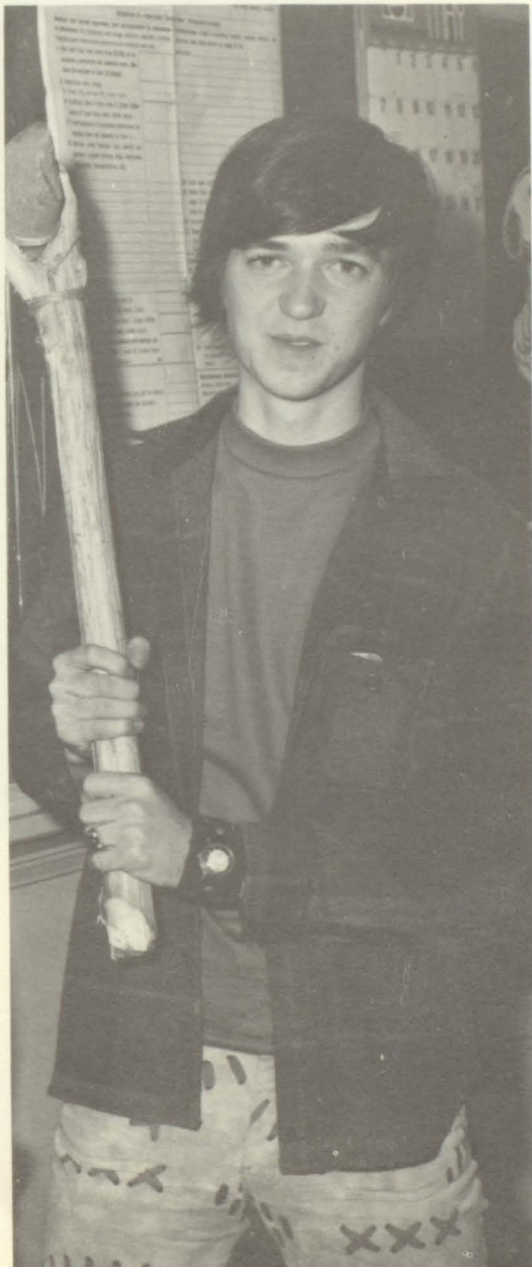

The sun smiled
on Armstrong for another 180 days.
We set out to remember the year and while thinking about it,
move ahead.
Somewhere
in the past year, we found time to make decisions and accept responsibility.
The scenes that took place set the stage for today and tomorrow.
The past is but a prologue . . .

Freshmen Initiation

September 10--

The Class of '72 introduced the Class of '76 to the realm of ATHS on September 10. The Royal couple was King Tim Rasmussen and Queen Candy Handley. There was a large array of animals from a local farm. Bathing beauties demonstrated superb hip action, and the grand finale was when the greenies squirmed across the gum at the feet of the Seniors.

Dreams

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

Langston Hughes

Summer Come Down Easy

Summer com down easy
so that I can see
just who I'm tali

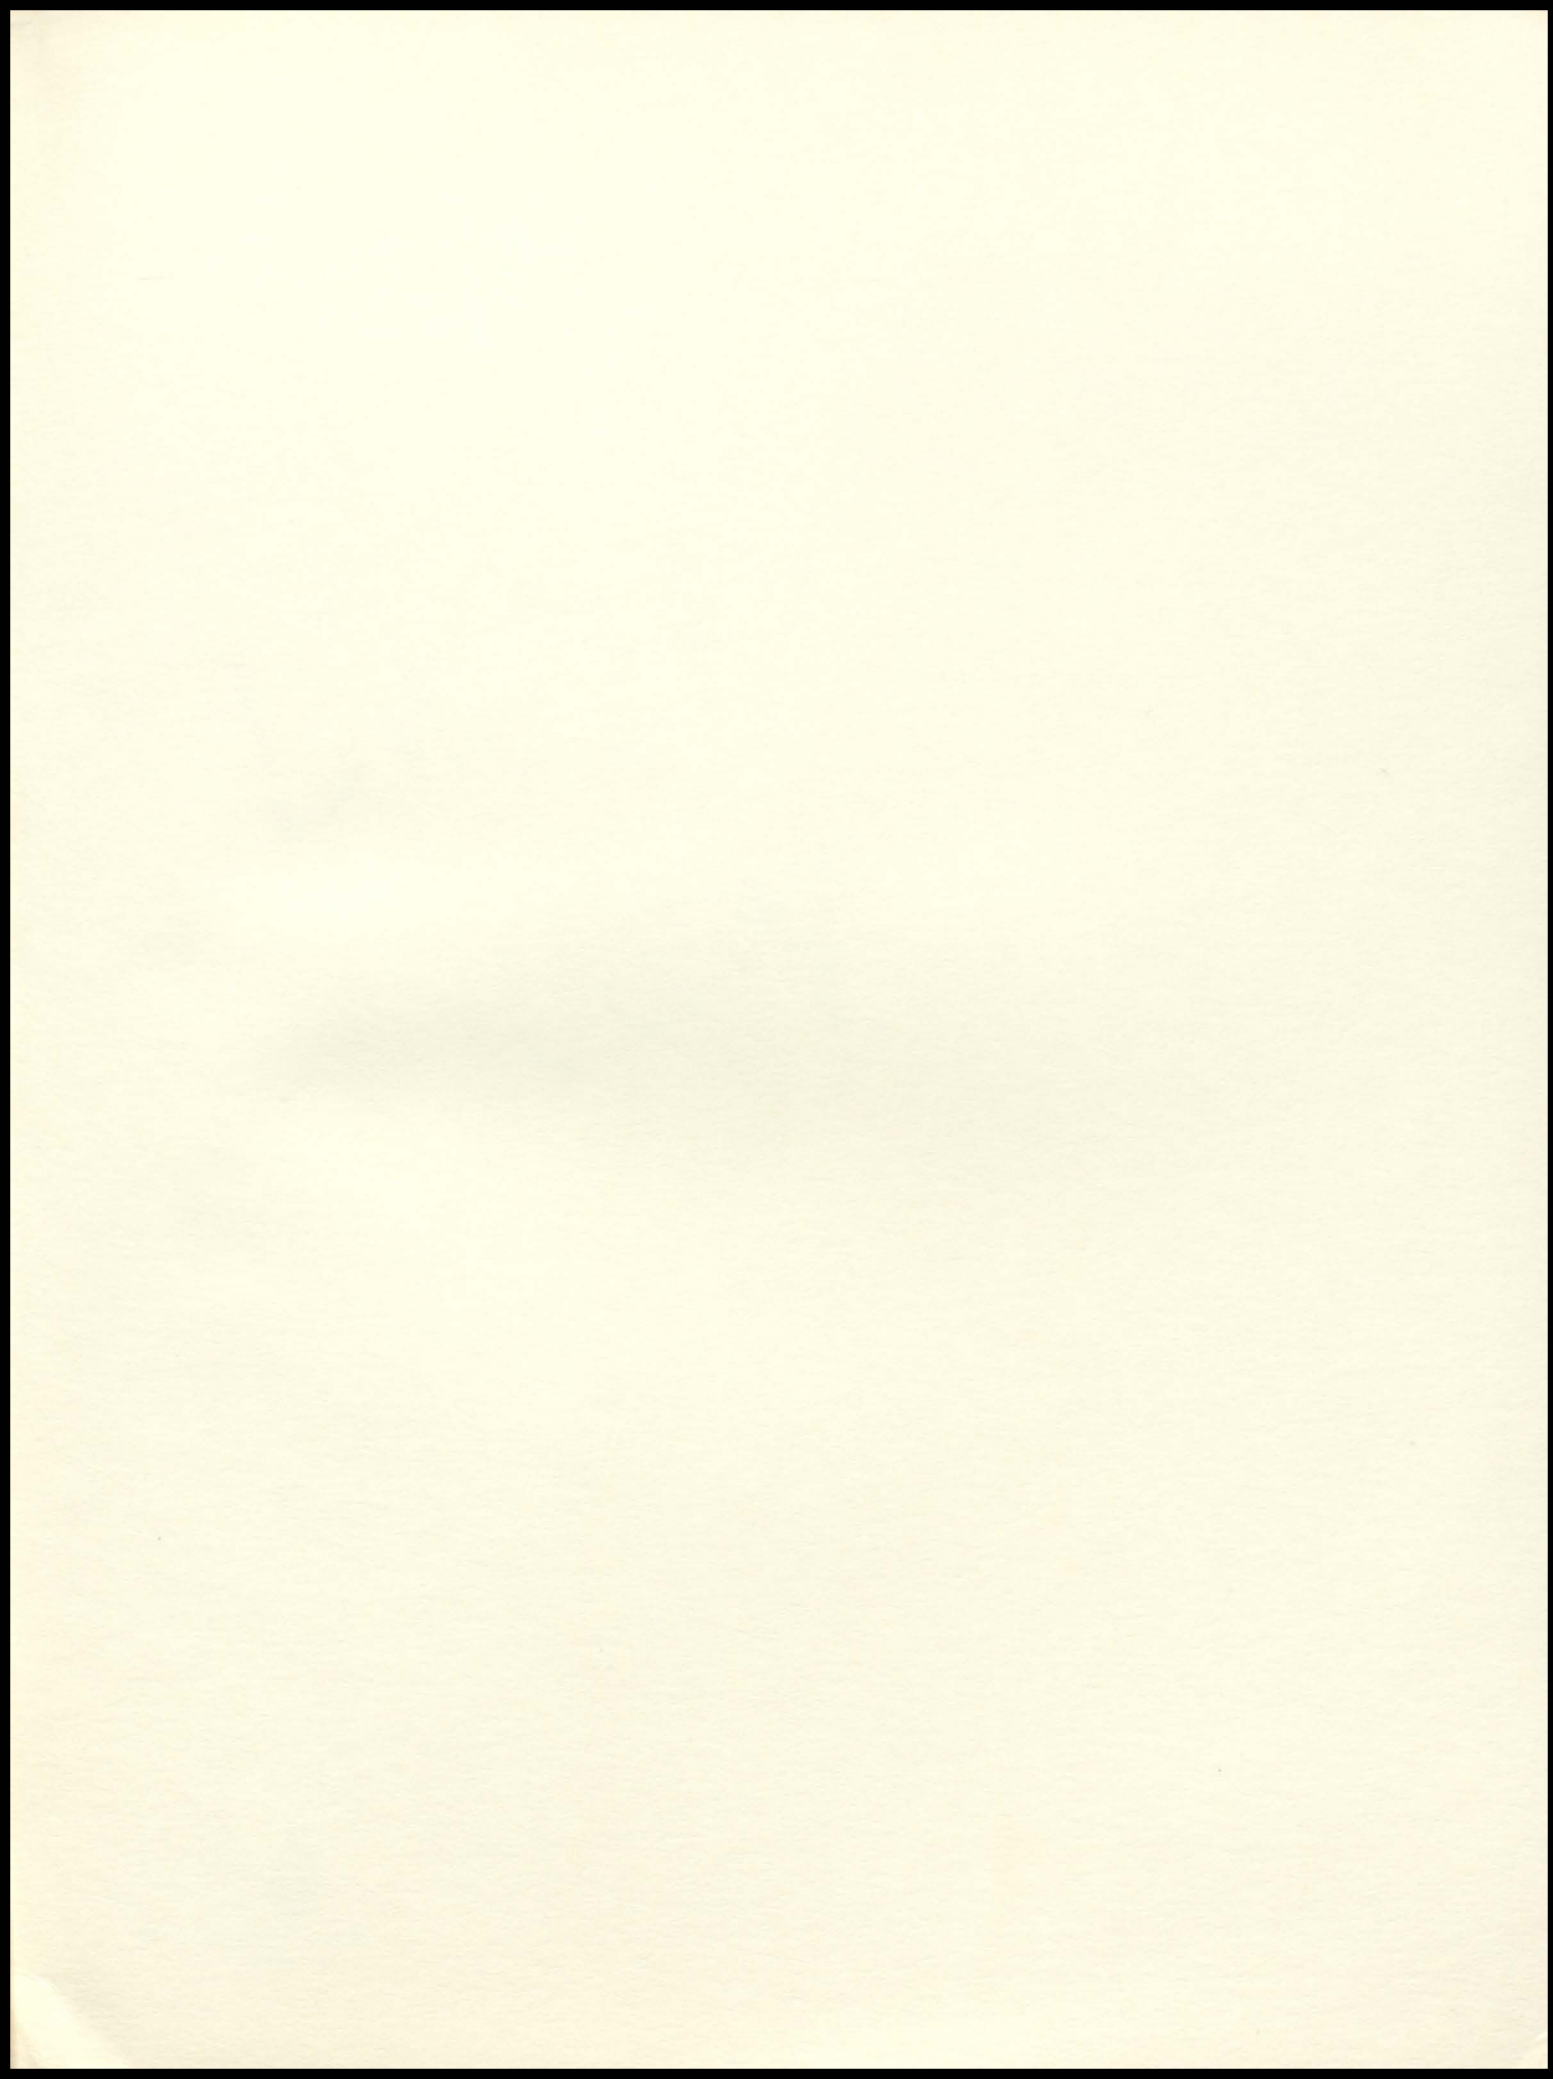

Summer come down easy
so that I can see
just who I'm talkin' to.
For I've been talkin' to the ceiling I've been talkin' to the floor and laughing at the shadow sneaking underneath the door.

Summer come down easy
so that I can see
just who I'm talkin' to.
I've had a conversation goin'
with a second-story window and it's gettin' so I don't know if I'm making any inroads.

Summer come down easy
let me see your face drive me into August or some other public place and come down easy.

If you come at all
summer come down easy
let me climb upon your back and spur you through the fall.
